

Orchid

superior potting media

Debco Orchid Superior Potting Media has been developed from years of experience in the production of mixes for professional nursery growers who specialise in the production of Orchids sold through nurseries.

Ideal for pots greater than 6 inch, this superior potting media has been designed through careful consideration of the conditions required to grow the broadest range of Orchids in tough conditions like in pots and all types of container gardening.

Orchid Superior Potting Media is manufactured from premium quality graded Pine Bark which is blended to provide the ideal ratio of air to water.

Food & Nutrition

Essential trace elements ensure strong healthy plants. A balanced fertiliser should be used from the time of potting.

Support

Made from quality composted Pine Bark. A long-lasting mix with good drainage and aeration for optimal plant establishment and development.
